

Lyric Opera Spring Break Camp 2010

A great gift for the young people in your life!

- Who: 25 youth, ages 9-18 years old
- When: Monday, March 15th to Friday, March 19th, 12:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. daily
- Where: Lyric Theatre (11th and Central, Kansas City, Missouri 64105)
- Cost: $100 (Need based scholarships are available)

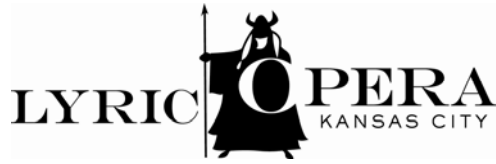

Daily Schedule

- 12:00-12:45 - Singing games, music reading activities, choral rehearsal with high quality music and emphasis on correct vocal technique.
- 12:45-1:30 - Rigoletto by Giuseppe Verdi: exciting activities to study the opera's story and music.
- 1:30-2:00 - LUNCH (Each camper must bring a sack lunch and drink)
- 2:00- 4:00 - Theater workshops, visits from special guests, scenes rehearsals and snack.

Activities and Guests

Activities will center on the time period and action in the opera Rigoletto. Campers will study the opera in-depth and learn a large portion of the music. Lyric Opera stage director, Linda Ade Brand will provide daily theater workshops to lead campers in exploring the basics of creating realistic characterizations and story theater techniques. Visiting artists will include professional opera singers, designers, and Maestro Ward Holmquist, Lyric Opera Artistic Director. Families are asked to save Friday March 19th for the final performance at the Lyric Theatre.

Campers will also have the opportunity to purchase tickets and attend "Dinner and the Opera" as a group on Friday, March 26th, which includes a backstage autograph signing after the performance of Rigoletto.
